

PEACE BUILDERS sends over $230,000 of Children's Videos and DVDs to TOYS FOR TOTS for distribution to Hurricane Katrina Victims in Louisiana

On December 5, 2005 Peace Builders donated over $230,000 of children's Videos/DVDs to Toys for Tots, working with the US Marines to get these holiday gifts to Hurricane Katrina victims in Louisiana.

Peace Builders is organizing a second shipment of holiday toys to leave the Bay Area on December 16th for Louisiana.

Contact Peace Builders to donate excess inventory, or personal donations of children's toys, clothes, school supplies.

Peace Builders (www.buildpeace.com/news) sent over 2,000 boxes of medical and other aid to Hurricane Katrina victims two months ago with the help of California Pacific Medical Group and Federal Express.

The donated video/DVD "Under The Stars and Stripes" is about Americans coming together to make a better future. Director/Producer Diane Eskenazi says "The heart of the production is its emphasis on the commonality of all people and the strength to be found in unity, friendship and peace. It sends out a message of hope."
